PREFACE.

When the weary traveler after a long journey has at length arrived at his destination, he lays down his burden and for a while reflects upon the varying scenes through which he has just passed. Likewise the "Princes" are mindful of the privileges and privations of their forefathers, who were ever ready with a willing hand to preserve this nation from danger, that it might enjoy prosperity and peace.

It is believed that this little volume will furnish information concerning the war record of the "Princes" which can be obtained in no other single publication extant, and in placing it before the public, we hope that no critic will be so unjust as to compare it with the vast and eloquent unwritten history of the "Princes." While the author has spared no pains or expense in order to obtain only that which is authentic and reliable, yet, perhaps, occasional errors of minor consequence may be found. Any one who may discover such will confer a favor by sending any corrections or additions to the author and publisher. We present this volume, however, with confidence, as we feel that records contained herein are thus preserved which otherwise would be lost, and also many "Princes" are brought to notice who have hitherto been unknown.

Deeds of daring, bravery and devotion by our forefathers now ennoble the records of nearly every state, in which every descendant should feel a natural pride, and it cannot but be prized as a record of ancestral sacrifice by the generations which are to follow, when grandchildren shall cluster around the chair of the gray-haired volunteer and listen while he tells once more how he carried the "old flag," or the musket, at Gettysburg; and when the venerable dame shall resort to the old bureau, fragrant with sacred memories, and gaze again through the mist, as a tear drops from the moistened eye, on that cherished blue coat worn by one who went to battle with her blessing, and died joyfully that the nation might have a second birth.

That the rising generations of "Princes" may emulate the bravery, devotion and patriotism so characteristic of the lives of our forefathers, is the wish of

THE AUTHOR.

CONNECTICUT.

Notes on the Service of 1775.

ARMS AND ACCOUTREMENTS.—At the special April session of the Legislature, when the first regiments were called out, it was enacted that the enlisted men should be furnished with good firearms belonging to the colony, if they were unable to furnish themselves; and, if they found their own arms, to be paid ten shillings for the use of such arms, and in case more arms should be required they were to be impressed from householders not enrolled. Ten shillings was to be awarded to all who offered guns, bayonets and cartouch boxes to the soldiers. It was also resolved at the same time that three thousand stand of arms be procured for the colony, of the following dimensions, to wit: "the length of the barrel, three feet ten inches; the diameter of the bore, from inside to inside, three-quarters of an inch; the length of the blade of the bayonet, fourteen inches; the length of the socket, four inches and a quarter; that the barrels be of suitable thickness, with iron ramrods and a spring in the lowest loop to secure the ramrod, a good, substantial lock, and a good stock, well mounted with brass and marked with the name or initial letters of the maker's name." Colony Records, Vol. XIV, p. 420. Officers wore swords or "hangers," as then commonly called.

SOLDIERS' RATIONS.—At the May session, the rations for the troops were fixed as follows: Three-fourths of a pound of pork or one pound of beef, one pound of bread or flour, and three pints of beer to each man per day; beef to be fresh two days in a week; also a half-pint of rice or a pint of Indian meal, six ounces of butter and three pints of peas or beans each man per week. Soldiers on fatigue duty were to be allowed one gill of rum each per day, and at no other time. Milk, candles, soap, molasses, vinegar, coffee, chocolate, sugar, tobacco, and vegetables in season, were to provided subject to the order of general and field officers. After the troops became Continental, the rations as authorized by Congress were not as liberal, either in quantity or variety, as the Colony allowance.

PAY OF OFFICERS AND SOLDIERS.—At the April session the following was established as the pay per calendar month for officers and enlisted men.

Major General,	£20.0s	Quarter Master,	£3.0s
Brigadier "	17.0	Chaplain,	6.0
Colonel,	15.0	Surgeon,	7.1
Lieut. Colonel,	12.0	Surgeon's Mate,	4.0
Major,	10.0	Sergeant,	2.8
Captain,	6.0	Corporal,	2.4
Lieutenant,	4.0	Fifer,	2.4
Ensign,	3.0	Drummer,	2.4
Adjutant,	5.1	Private,	2.0

UNIFORMS AND CAMP EQUIPAGE.—The troops of 1775 were generally without uniforms. They marched in citizen's clothes, with blankets and knapsacks. A few exceptions are however noted, such as Captain Chester's Weathersfield Company, which was clothed "wholly in blue, turned up with red," and Captain Arnold's Company of Governor's Guards, New Haven, in Lexington Alarm. Individual officers provided themselves with uniforms, but their rank was distinguished by different colored ribbons which they were directed to wear.

Camp equipage consisted of tents or "marques" for officers, tents for soldiers, and tin and brass kettles, iron pots, frying pans, wooden bowls, and quart cups for company cooking and "messes." Each company was allowed one cart or wagon.

REGIMENTAL STANDARDS.—It was enacted by the Legislature that the eight regiments of '75 should be distinguished by flags of different colors, as follows: 1st regiment yellow; 2nd regiment blue; 3rd regiment scarlet; 4th regiment crimson; 5th regiment white; 6th regiment azure: 7th regiment blue (?); 8th regiment orange.

The 3rd Regiment was composed of companies from New London and Lyme.

FORMATION OF 1777-1781.

First Reg't Connecticut Line.

Raised from and after January 1st, 1877, for the new Continental army, to continue during the war. Enlisted mainly in New London county; rendezvous at New London. Took the field in Spring of '77 at Peekskill, N. Y., and remained there in camp until ordered, under Gen. McDougall, to Washington's army in Penn. September '77 engaged on the left flank at battle of Germantown, Oct. 4, and suffered some loss in killed, wounded, and prisoners; wintered at Valley Forge, in Huntington's Brigade, '77–'78; present at the battle of Monmouth, June 28, '78; in camp at White Plains in Huntington's second Brigade until ordered into Winter quarters with Conn. division at Redding, '78–79; in '79 served on East side of Hudson and in repelling Tyron's invasion. Captain Selden's Light Company, detached to Meig's Light Regiment and present at the storming of Stony Point, July 15, '79, wintered at Morristown Huts, '79–80; served along the Hudson through '80 and wintered at camp "Connecticut Village," above Robinson house, and consolidated in new arrangement for '81–'83.

Among the Privates of this *regiment are the following:

TIMOTHY PRINCE, was in Eldrige's Company, date of enlistment, April 19, '77; term of service, one year. Discharged Jan 12, 1778.

PHILIP PRINCE, was in Eldridge's Company, date of enlistment, April 16, '77; term of service, one year. Discharged Jan 12, 1778. He again enlisted after his discharge, for a short term, in same Regt. Date of second enlistment, Sept. 1, '80, discharged Dec. 15, 1780.

In Colonel Chapman's Regiment of Militia, service for 1778, we find that in Aug.' 78, a body of militia under Brig. Gen. John Tyler, served under Gen. Sullivan, and engaged in the attempt to dislodge the British at Newport. It was present at the battle of Rhode Island, Aug. 29, '78. In Capt. Thos. Wheeler's company of this Regt. appears the name of TIMOTHY PRINCE. Entered service Aug. 3, discharged Sept. 12, 1778.

*This Regiment was composed of the Military companies from Hartford (West Side), Windsor, Suffield and Wintonbury.

Third Reg't "Connecticut Line." Col. Samuel Wylly's of Hartford.

Formation of 1777 and 1781.

Raised for the New Army or "Continental Line," and recruited mainly in Hartford county and eastern part of the state: general rendezvous, Middletown. This Regiment, in part, assisted in repelling the enemy at Danbury, April 26–27; went into camp at Peekskill in May '77 and served in Parson's First Brigade under Putnam along the Hudson until January '78 when the Brigade took post at West Point and later began the construction of permanent works there; Fort Wyllys at that point doubtless named after the Colonel of the Regiment. In the summer of '78 it encamped at White Plains with Washington's main army; wintered '78–'79 at Redding. During operations of '79, served in General Heath's wing on East side of the Hudson. Its Light Company, under Captain Champion, detached to Meig's Light Regiment and engaged in storming of Stony Point, July 15, '79; wintered '79–'80 at Morristown, N. J., and served on outposts with the main army on Hudson during '80, and wintered '80–'81 at camp "Connecticut Village," above Robinson house, the site selected being just back of Constitution Island, opposite West Point, about one mile and a half from the river, and not far from the main road. It is described as lying between two high mountains and advantageously situuated. Here it was reorganized for the next formation of the Line.

Among the privates who served in this Regiment (Champion Company) appears the name of ZUKRY PRINCE. Date of enlistment, May 22, '77; term of service,———; remarks: Dead, February '79.

†Seventh Regiment. Colonel Charles Webb, 1775.

imer's Regiment and in Captain Isaac Stone's Company, the name of SAMUEL PRINCE, from the town of Killingly. Commencement of pay, Aug. 23, paid to Nov. 9.

From the List of Revolutionary Pensioners of Connecticut.

No general pension laws were passed by Congress until March 18, 1818, when it was provided that survivors of the Revolutionary War, who had served for nine months or more in the Continental Army or Navy, could, under the conditions of this Act, become pensioners of the government. Prior to that date relief had been given only to those who had been disabled in the service, or to their widows and children. The following names are taken from the list which represents the Connecticut pensioners of 1818.

PHILIP PRINCE, Private, R. I.

KIMBALL PRINCE, Sergeant, N. Y.

Office of Adjutant General.
Trenton, N. J.

F. A. Prince, Esq., Danielson, Conn.

Dear Sir:—Enclosed please find a complete list of the names and service of all soldiers of the name of Prince who served to the credit of New Jersey in the Revolutionary War, Pennsylvania Insurrection of 1794, War of 1812 and the Civil War. The roster of Jerseymen in the Revolutionary War was printed in book form in 1872. A large amount of new data has been obtained since then and the book is by no means complete. It is out of print and there is great difficulty in obtaining a copy. Yours truly,

WILLIAM S. STRYKER,
Adjutant General.

WILLIAM PRINCE served as a Private in the 1st Battalion. 2nd Establishment; also as a Private in the 1st Reg't: also as a Private in Capt. Bateman Lloyd's Co., 3rd Reg't; also as a Private in the 2nd Reg't;—New Jersey Continental line during the Revolutionary War.

VIRGINIA.

COMMONWEALTH OF VIRGINIA.

Office of Adjutant General.
Richmond, Va.

Mr. F. A. Prince, Danielson, Conn.

Dear Sir:—I regret very much the inability of this Office to send you the record of service of all persons by the name of Prince who served in the Revolutionary War. All the records in the Adjutant General's Office, prior to 1865, were destroyed in the fire which partially burned the city on April 3rd of that year.

If you will write to Dr. R. A. Brock, this city, he may possibly search the records in the Land Office, and ascertain if the name appears on the list of those to whom land grants were made. Very respectfully,

CHARLES J. ANDERSON,
Adjutant General.

PENNSYLVANIA.

STATE LIBRARY OF PENNSYLVANIA.

Harrisburg, Pa., April 21, 1897.

Mr. F. A. Prince, Danielson, Conn.

My dear Sir:—I do not find the name of "PRINCE" among the soldiers of the War of the Revolution. As to the records of the War of 1812 they are not indexed alphabetically, nor accessible.

Yours with respect,

WILLIAM H. EGLE,

State Librarian.

GEORGIA.

Office of Adjutant General,
Atlanta, Ga.

Mr. F. A. Prince,
Danielson, Conn.

Sir:—I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 8th inst. asking for the record of service of all persons named "PRINCE" who engaged in the several wars of this government. In moving from the old capitol to this one the war records of this office were badly mixed and have never been re-arranged but remain in the boxes in which they were brought from the old capitol and it would be a matter of great labor to go through them and get the information you desire. In fact, I doubt if there is but one man who could get the information you desire, as he is the only man at all familiar with the records. I refer to Mr. W. E. Quillain, former clerk in this office, who, by reason of his long service, is quite familiar with all records. You might correspond with him in regard to the matter; his address is Crew St., Atlanta, Ga.

I regret very much that the limited clerical force of this office renders it impossible to give you the information you desire.

Very respectfully,

OSCAR J. BOBSOON,

Acting Adjutant General.

NEW YORK.

In Revolutionary War.

According to the most recent book issued of New York in the Revolution the following are the distinctions as regards the regiments furnished by the State:

1st. The Line; which regiments were in the United States service under General Washington.

2d. The Levies; which were drafts from the different militia regiments, and from the people direct as well, and which could be called upon to serve outside the State during their entire term.

3d. The Militia; which could only be called out of the State for three months at a time.

Of the Line there were nine organizations, of the Levies there were seven organizations and of the Militia some sixty-eight organizations—in all some eighty-four organizations.

Mr. F. A. Prince,
Danielson, Conn.

The name "PRINCE" has not been found on the rolls on file in this office of any New Hampshire military organization in service during the War of 1812.

By authority of the Secretary of War,

F. C. AINSWORTH,

Col. U. S. Army, Chief of Office.

The following table, derived from the report of Gen. Knox to Congress in 1790, in obedience to a call on the War Department by the House of Representatives, shows the number of regular soldiers furnished by each State to the War of the Revolution. (See National Intelligencer, Oct. 7, 1850; also "Hist. Conn.," Vol. II.)

The preceeding pages contain the records of service of all persons by name of "PRINCE" that is available at the present time (1897) who served in Lexington Alarm and Revolutionary War from the thirteen original states.

The records of the War of 1812 are preserved in War Department Record and Pension Office, Washington, D. C., and, further, it is impossible to obtain them as the following will indicate. "Any person who will furnish the full names of not more than two of their ancestors who served in the early Wars, indicating the organization in which they served, or, if not known, the states from which they entered service, such information in relation to them as the record of this office may afford will be cheerfully furnished, but anything otherwise will not be entertained. Again to furnish the information to the requests that have become so numerous the Secretary of War has been compelled to establish a rule to the effect that the service records of not more than two ancestors in the early wars shall be furnished to any one applicant and that no requests for information for publication shall be entertained."

F. C. AINSWORTH, Col. U. S. Army.
Chief, Record and Pension Office.
Washington, D. C.

NOTE. We very much regret our inability to secure for our readers this important list of 1812 men which is so essential in the making of a complete list. Out of the eighteen states which participated in the War of 1812 we have been able to give from Official authority only the foregoing states: Connecticut, Vermont and New Hampshire.

EXPLANATORY.

In compiling the foregoing records of the Civil War, these being all that it is possible to obtain at the present time, it has been a matter of no small importance to go over carefully, page by page, more than one hundred volumes, containing from eight hundred to twelve hundred pages each, and gather therefrom these records. Many of the states' records are in such a confused condition that it is impossible to make use of them, while other states are just preparing for publication their roster of soldiers who served in the Confederate Army. Such is the case in South Carolina at this writing. Nevertheless, due diligence has been exercised to secure for the benefit of our readers and the rising generations authentic war records of our forefathers.
